GARNER'S CARDS
"ON THE TABLE",
FRIENDS CLAIMEntered In Midwest and West Primaries In April, MayHINT TO FDR SEEN
IN HIS PROGRAMFirst Presidential Primary Scheduled Tuesday In N. Hampshire(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 11.—Vice President Garner has laid all his cards on the table for the presidential primaries, friends said today,
and now will be content to sit back and watch results.Garner, a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination, has entered the April primaries in Illinois and Wisconsin and the Oregon and California races in May.He approved a slate of California delegates pledged to him Saturday night, telegraphing his California leaders that his candidacy "is in the hands of the people" for decision either at the Democratic convention or at the November election.Some of Garner's associates interpreted the statement as an indirect suggestion that President Roosevelt, if he wants a third term, also should give the people a chance to vote directly on his candidacy in the primaries.Even though the President has given no indication as to whether he will run again, delegates pledged to Mr. Roosevelt will be running against the Garner ticket in most primaries where the vice president is entered.Immediate political interest centered on New Hampshire, where the first 1940 presidential primary will be held tomorrow.The bulk of a slate pledged to Mr. Roosevelt was unopposed on the Democratic ticket.

C. O. P. Candidates Unpledged

Most of the Republican candidates are unpledged but are expected to support the "favorite son" candidate of Senator Bridges (R-NH). One candidate for a district delegate's post is pledged to Thomas E. Dewey, although the latter asked him to withdraw.Senate Democrats in touch with Postmaster General Farley reported, meanwhile, that he had little to say regarding his candidacy for the presidential nomination.One well-advised senator declared:"Farley is now trying to make up his mind whether to go it alone
or to wait on Roosevelt."A weekend political development was the announcement by Chairman John Hamilton that the Republican national committee would not issue a party convention book, calling the books a "subterfuge" for getting around the corrupt practices act.

Shoots Woman, 23

STUEBENVILLE, March 11.—
Charged with shooting to kill,
Julius Odorizzi, 49, was held in jail
today in connection with the night club shooting of Mrs. Thelma Miller, 23, in a criminal condition in a hospital. Police asserted he fired at Mrs. Miller as she watched a floor show in a tavern opposite city jail. Officers said no motive had been established.

England And France Ready
To Go To Finland's Aid If
It Is Asked, Premier Asserts"ON TO VICTORY"
HITLER CALLSHits England and France;
No Mention of Finn-
Russian War(By Associated Press)
BERLIN, March 11.—The pre-valing impression in Berlin today
was that Germany would mark time on any move of her own in connection with the Finnish-Russian peace talks pending definite word on the course of the Moscow negotiations.Uncertainty and silence characterized the Berlin visit of Per Eivind Svinhufvud, former president of Finland. He was reported to have had several "private" conversations with Germans but with no top rank officials.

"On To Victory"

Adolf Hitler's "on-to-victory"
speech yesterday in observance of Germany's memorial day contained no reference to the Finnish-Russian situation. It was rather a proclamation of undying struggle against Germany's enemies—"imperialist England and France.""The world desires our dissolution," the fuhrer told 600 invited guests in the courtyard of the zeughaus—military museum—whose walls were lined with tanks and guns and other trophies of the Polish campaign."Our only reply can be the greatest pledge of all times: On to victory!"Hitler looked paler and more solemn than usual. His gray uniform, barren of insignia, offered a sharp contrast to the glittering uniforms of his audience.

Lives "For One Task"

"As fuhrer of the nation, as chief of state, as supreme commander of the armed forces I live but for one task: Day and night to think of victory, struggle, work and fight for victory, if necessary not to spare my own life in the conviction that this Germany's future will be secured for centuries.""This war, forced upon us, must turn out to be the most glorious victory in German history."Underlining the fuhrer's declarations was an announcement yesterday by the high command that a tenth of Great Britain's tanker fleet had been destroyed.I.O.O.F LODGES

Question Suspect

COLUMBUS, March 11.—Police
questioned today a third suspect, identified as a 65-year-old former sailor, in the slaying last Thursday of Alice Lauterbach, 75. Detective Clem Owens said neighbors told him
the suspect once proposed marriage to Miss Lauterbach, who chased him from her home with a broom.
Two Negroes questioned in the slay-ing have been released.

BULK STATIONThree Armed Robbers Escape With $3,000 In Youngstown HoldupYOUNGSTOWN, March 11.—
Three bandits, entering different doors almost simultaneously, held up the Youngstown Hi-Speed gasoline bulk station here this morning and escaped with $3,000 after tying seven persons with wire.The robbery occurred about 15 minutes after the office was opened.David Dickey, maintenance man, told Mahoning county deputy sheriffs that employees were not disturbed when one man walked into the office, thinking he was a customer or a visitor. A moment later a second man entered with a drawn gun. The first man whipped out his pistol and the third bandit stepped in the only other door to the office.The bandits forced the employees into a furnace room. When the bookkeeper arrived, they made her open two safes, then bound all seven victims with wire, pulled out two telephones, wired the door shut, and escaped.Wives To Be Guests

rangements, by Wednesday.

Truck, Car Collide

No one was injured at 8:30 a. m.
today when a car driven by Mrs.
T. H. Hartman, 46, of Moultrie, and a state highway department truck, operated by William D. King, 45, of Hanoverton, collided on Route 30
at East Rochester. State Patrolman James White said."ALL RESOURCES"
TO BE AVAILABLEDeclaration Is Made In Address to House By Chamberlain(By Associated Press)
LONDON, March 11.—Great Britain and France have informed Finland that they are ready "to proceed immediately and jointly to the help of Finland" with "all available resources" if the Finnish government should ask for "further aid." Prime Minister Chamberlain told the house of commons today.Later statement from his office said that "the prime minister desires to make it clear that no appeal for further aid has yet been received from the Finnish government."

Sending Aid Now

Asked by Labor Leader Clement Attlee for a statement on the Russian—Finnish negotiations, Chamberlain said:"The house will be aware that both the French and British governments have sent and are continuing to send material assistance to Finland. This has been of considerable value to the Finnish forces."
"As his majesty's government and the French government have already informed the Finnish government, they are prepared in response to an appeal from them for further aid to proceed immediately and jointly to the help of Finland, using all available resources at their disposal."

Settlement Problematical

Asked if he could say anything regarding the question of settlement of the Russian-Finnish conflict, Chamberlain said: "I am afraid I have no information which is sufficiently reliable to give the house at the present moment."As to whether further British-French help for Finland would be tantamount to going to war against Russia, Chamberlain said:"We have not arrived at that yet."Chamberlain refused to answer a question whether Britain was "proposing to send troops to Finland," and "if so, are they preparing to violate the neutrality of Norway and Sweden by doing so."Takes Field Trip

dealing with Negro and alien groups were visited in connection with a course in American life, and on Monday the group divided, girls majoring in sociology going to the women's house of detention to study modern prison conditions and attend a lecture on the supervision given released prisoners.Students whose primary interest is economics spent the morning at the stock exchange, the Federal Reserve bank and the clearing house. The groups met in the afternoon for a tour of a modern industrial plant before returning to college.Miss Astry will return home

At Service StationEAST PALESTINE, March 11.— Two bandits got $15 in a holdup at the Robert Harding service station on E. Taggart st. at 9:30 p. m.
Sunday.Deputy sheriffs learned that the two men drove to the station in a 1936 Chevrolet and immediately demanded the money, from the attendant, declaring that "this is a stickup!"One of the men held his hand in an overcoat pocket as if covering a gun. The attendant tossed over the $15 in bills but the gunmen ignored a small bag of change and escaped.Thief Gets $8 At Lisbon Feed StoreLISBON, March 11.—The Hoy Feed store on S. Market st. was entered during the weekend by a thief who took $8 from the cash
drawer.Deputy Sheriff Howard Clark and Patrolman Charles Patterson said the intruder used a passkey to gain entrance to the rear of the store and then forced an inside window. Fingerprints were obtained.ALIANCE WILL VOTE TUESDAY
ON NEW LEVIESMore Men for Fire and Police Departments
Are SoughtINSURANCE BOOST
IS THREATENEDSuccess of Levies Would Bring In Additional $40,000ALLIANCE, March 11.—Voters will go to the polls in a special election Tuesday to pass upon extra 1.5-mill levies, approval of which,
municipal officials say, will mean the ultimate countermanding of steep blanket increases in fire insurance rates.The rates were ordered increased because of alleged inadequacy of the city's fire-fighting facilities.

Seek More Firemen

Most important of the levies,
one of .75-mill, if approved by a 65 per cent vote, would enable the city to add 10 men to the eight-man fire department, buy a new pumper and reopen an outlying fire station which was closed as an economy measure some time ago.Another levy, one of .5-mill, would restore the police force to 18
men.The third, for .25-mill, would provide a new boiler and other needed equipment at City hospital.After completing a survey of fire-fighting facilities here recently, the Ohio Inspection Bureau ordered Alliance placed in a classification which automatically boosted insurance rates an estimated $35,000 to $40,000.

$40,000 Increase Seen

If these special two-year levies
carry, officials say, the city's operating revenues would be increased by about $40,000.At a special registration just held,
more than 200 voters were added to the qualified list.ROAD PROGRAM TOPS WPA JOBSCountry-Wide Improvement Project Is Largest on Schedule Now; 974 Men EmployedAKRON, March 11.—The county-wide road improvement program is the largest unit of the work relief activities in Columbiana county at the present time, it was revealed today in a report issued by Charles R. Sharp, acting district manager for WPA in northeastern Ohio.Approximately 974 men are engaged in the widespread program for modernizing roads throughout the county. The program is sponsored by the county engineer's office. Ruttled, antiquated roads are being replaced with safe, modern highways by these WPA workers.Rural residents will benefit greatly by these improved roads, it was pointed out. Boys and girls attending rural schools, mail carriers and farmers have seen hazardous muddy lanes disappear as WPA workers go forward with the road program.Construction of roads has been a major item of the WPA program in northeastern Ohio for the last four years. More than 1,000 miles of roads have been constructed in the Akron district since inauguration of the WPA program in 1935.
The road building program is a part of the construction division of WPA which employs approximately 23,730 persons in 13 counties at the present time.Other construction projects operating in Columbiana county include: East Liverpool streets, East Liverpool sewers, state roads, Firestone park, county schools.Mahoning County

SALEM, INJUREDCrash Occurs On Rte. 14, Half-Mile West of E. PalestineAn East Palestine man was killed and a Salem man seriously injured in a truck-automobile collision on Route 14, one-half mile west of East Palestine, at 10:50
p. m. Saturday.Seventeen were killed in the state in weekend accidents.The victim was Lawrence Mack-lin, 32, of W. Martin st., East Palestine, who died instantly under the wheels of a heavy truck-trailer when thrown from the car in which he was riding.Melvin K. Bertolette, 37, of 963
S. Union ave., driver of the machine, suffered a possible skull
fracture and three fractured ribs, at the spine. His condition at Salem City hospital, where he was admitted at 1:40 a. m. Sunday, was reported today as fair.

Truck Driver Unhurt

Welden Peelee, 48, of Fremont, operator of the truck, was uninjured in the accident, Salem state highway patrolman said.Macklin's death raised the Columbiana county traffic death toll for the year to five.According to the state patrolmen, Bertolette's car struck the front of the west-bound truck, spun around and crashed against the side of the truck. At the impact, the right-door of the Salem man's car flew open and Macklin fell onto the highway and was crushed by the wheels of the truck.
He was dead when pulled from beneath the vehicle.The officers said they believed Bertolette's car slipped off the highway onto the berm and skid-ded when he struck an icy spot
after getting back onto the road.They said he picked Macklin up at Hoffmaster's bowling alley, between Columbiana and East Palestine, and was taking him home.
Bertolette, a Pennsylvania railroad fireman, and auto salesman in his spare time, was driving to Pittsburgh for his run.Mrs. Mary Firestone,

EMBATTLED FARMERS

Apropos of English schoolboys snooting cheese because it's also a slang expression and some Americans taking "baloney" on the table as lightly as they do in conversation, Ohio farmers are doubling up their fists about ham and eggs.

They resent the slur being cast by "ham and egg" penion plan promoters on a mighty fine eating combination. R. E. Gray, poultry husbandry specialist of Ohio State university, announces food producers and merchants are organizing to combat a situation worthy of the Dies committee hunt for un-American activities.

He says he suspects various forms of social relief were dubbed "ham and eggs" plans to besmirch old American favorites. If more ham and eggs were eaten and less disrepute thrown on them by the phrase in careless mouths, Gray explains, some of the relief the pension promoters promise would be made available.

This careless use of names and phrases in the United States at the expense of sacred things must stop. When the farmers get the ham and eggs situation straightened out, they should tackle the smirch on rugged individualism, the thing that keeps farmers going along with ham and eggs. To hear the lords of the New Dispensation tell about it, to be a rugged individualist is a far worse than death.

PEACE DOVES IN ARMOR

Disillusionment about peace makes it the privilege of clonkers to call the Russo-Finnish negotiations something else.

It is possible the terms of compromise to end the war may be found, but they could not be called the terms of peace.

They would not guarantee Finland's security against a stronger country that has adopted a policy of aggression.

They would not establish understanding between the Finns and Russians. They would be terms made at the point of a gun.

Nevertheless, they might be made. Finland might be convinced it has more to gain from coming to terms than by continuing to fight. Russia might be persuaded by intervening governments that it cannot afford to continue its attack. There might be a restoration of the balance of power that formerly restrained Soviet militarism from striking westward in Europe.

But these things would not be peace. There can be no peace till powerful nations prefer peace to war, not as a matter of expediency but as a matter of conviction. In the meantime the most that can be hoped for is an armed truce in an atmosphere of hate and suspicion—the kind of truce that flared up last September in a continuation of war.

LINEN DISPLAY

There never would have been a Hatch act without the resentment generated by the attempt to purge the Democratic party. When legislators of the majority party realized they could be victimized by the same campaign methods that had been used against Republicans, they suddenly were converted to the notion that reform was in order.

This salient fact needs to be remembered. It needs to be remembered because it is the key to understanding why the Hatch act, which the public had lost sight of, has become a subject of discussion. As in 1888, at the time of the abortive purge of Democrats by Democrats, the foremost thought in the minds of politicians in 1940 is how to win votes and influence people.

The dirty linen just washed in public by some of the vote winners who do not want any more helping hands in political organizations to be tied than the original Hatch act already has tied gives the public a rough idea of what's in store for the forthcoming campaign if the nit 'em in the jugular boys have their way.

"DER TAG"

Now is the time for all good filling station attendants to come to the aid of the party with the new license tags. Yesterday was the first day for display, but no one will be killed in the rush. Until the end of the month there's always one more tomorrow.

Kind words are in order for the color switch which puts the blue in the background and the white on the numerals. Provided the background doesn't fade as much as the numerals customarily fade after 12 months of Ohio weather, the plates may look sprucer next March than they look this March.

Thoughtful citizens will bare their heads at sight of the 1940 plates. Their owner is a pillar of the state. He is a heavy contributor to public welfare. His auto tag is a certificate that he can take it, even if he does have to grin sheepishly at the fellow who pumps his gasoline and ask for a little help to get his merit badge in place.

KINDLY TAKE NOTE

Rebuttal for a favorite argument—that no matter who wins the war, democracy loses—is the presence in the United States of Archduke Otto of Hapsburg, pretender to a throne in a country that doesn't exist—Austria.

Otto is looking ahead to Danubian federation as soon as the would-be masters of central Europe have exhausted themselves again. Counting on the probable value of his person as a symbol of government when and if the time comes, he declares he has come here to study representative democracy.

There may be more to his visit than that, of course, but the significance of a pretender to a throne preparing himself for the job by studying the government of the United States can't be shrugged off. At the very least, it means that one European politician anticipates, more, not less, attention to the individual as the result of a war precipitated in large part by submersion of the individual in an authoritarian state.

THE STARS SAY:
For Tuesday, March 12

A DIFFICULT day is presaged from the strongly adverse planetary aspects. There are likely to be tentacious obstacles which will take much tact and diplomacy to remove. The stubborn opposition seems to have its source in deep roots, probably in connection with groups or organized bodies, with whom much discrimination should be exercised.

Those whose birthday it is may have to draw on a reserve fund of patience, fortitude and prudence during the year in order to side-step or vanquish obstinate and difficult situations. Many obstacles and frustrating circumstances arise, probably from old organizations or new and ambitious groups.

A child born on this day may be fairly clever, with deep, subtle and shrewd traits of character, which should enable it to transcend frustrating circumstances by prudence, clear thinking and strategic tactics.

With great deliberation, Adolf is weighing every consideration as he impulsively prepares to deliver that lightning stroke.

Kamerad Hitler's desire to Germanize the world is strengthened by the unpopularity in alien lands of his type of humor.

Fable: Once upon a time someone who was promoting something didn't have his picture taken selling a ticket to the mayor.

The battle of the decade is a title that could be applied to the Congressional argument over what questions may be asked in the census.

Caution In Treating Aged
Is Urged By ClendeningBy LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.
Do medicines act differently in old people?

We must be as careful in giving medicine to the aged as to the young. Old people cannot use some of the medicines that are used in adult life at all. In others the dosage must be changed.

In general, the old do not respond well to medication. The drugs are absorbed slowly and what is called "cumulative action" is common.

Treacherous drugs in the aged are the sedatives. Preparations such as the barbiturates may work very well in a person of adult life and give a quiet and comforting night's sleep, yet the same dose in an elderly person may cause nervous excitement and mental confusion lasting for many hours.

Drugs which act on the heart do not always give the results after 60 that occur at 30. In fact, it is wise not to try to cure old people too fast. Their symptoms or diseases have been with them a long time and may be doing them no special acute harm. Abrupt changes in diet and habits are especially to be avoided. I have seen many a case of diabetes in the aged tackled by an enthusiastic practitioner with an entire change in the diet that so upset the patient as to throw him into an actually dangerous condition. A curious corollary of this is that the aged stand surgery very well. As the professor of medicine at the University of Pennsylvania says, "Doctors will temporize, will over-medicate, but from faulty timidity deprive an aged patient of a chance at surgical cure."

Dr. Clendening will answer questions of general interest only, and then only through his column.

"We hear a great deal of argument pro and con as to whether it is necessary to make plans for sufficient vitamins in the diet. One would think that if vitamins were necessary, a population such as Germany at the present time would show the effects of lack of vitamins as well as lack of total calories in the food. Is there any evidence to show that this is true?"

In a report published by Dr. Martin Gumpert, former head of the Berlin City Dispensary for Deformity Diseases, which was abstracted in the Readers Digest for formities in children who are beginning to walk. Scurvy is frequent in infants and has even been found in adults. Infectious diseases, the incidence of which is partially dependent on vitamin A, are very prevalent, diphtheria having increased almost 50 per cent since 1933. All over the world elsewhere, the incidence of diphtheria has been on the decrease. The death rate from diphtheria in Germany is now more than four times that of the United States. Tuberculosis is on the decline in every other country but on the increase in Germany.

"SELF MADE GIRL" by HAZEL LIVINGSTON

SYNOPSIS

Linda Perry, youngest of the five poverty-stricken Perry's lives with her family in a small frame house in the country near Philadelphia. As the youngest and prettiest, Linda is spoiled by the old French grandmother whom she adores, and by her older brother and sisters. She has no idea of social distinctions and the heartaches that will inevitably be hers when she and her socially prominent friends grow up. The first blow falls when ambitious Mrs. Wagner succeeds in breaking the friendship of her daughter, Ruth, and Linda. Then Constance Scott, Linda's dearest friend, is sent away to private school. At fifteen Linda knows what loneliness means. But Connie is loyal and, during the summer vacation, makes plans which include Linda at a country club dance. Linda and tall, dark-eyed Glenn McAllister are attracted to each other. They, Connie and Glenn's brother, Everett, are together constantly until the boys return to school. Then Mrs. Scott takes Constance to school in France. People whisper that the Scotts are separating. Linda returns to her humdrum existence of school, housework, and listening to her brothers, Bert and Lawrie, argue. Then one day her sister, Claudine, goes to the hospital and the latter's children stay with the Perrys.

CHAPTER VI

Next day came the news of the new baby, a girl, to be named Patricia Anne, and Claudine was going to be all right, only she was a little disappointed, because they'd planned on a boy.

"After Junior, I shouldn't think she'd want to LOOK at another boy," Linda cried crossly, and her father said, "What's the MATTER with this house? Isn't there any peace in it anymore? And Linda cried, "No!" and burst into tears and ran up to her room and locked the door.

She thought that nothing more could happen, that once they had got rid of Junior and the babies, and her mother came back, and Lawrie got all his things back and didn't come in every half hour to get something else and fight with Bert, they'd have peace again, and everything would run smoothly, as it used to.

Pug she was wrong. Next morning, when Bert came down early for his breakfast, the kitchen was empty, no breakfast prepared. He thought that Grandma had overslept, and went downstairs to call her. Linda heard him, and slipped out of bed. "Let her sleep, Bert, she hasn't looked too well. I'll get breakfast. It won't take me a minute to dress!"

When she came into the hall, in her hastily slipped on gingham, a scant five minutes later, Bert was still standing outside Grandma's door.

His dark, habitually expressionless face, was twisted with emotion. He jerked a thumb back at the closed door. "She won't ever wake up any more," he said in a voice that he tried to make gentle, but was harsh and loud. "She's dead."

Linda looked at him stupidly. Grandma Pologne dead! It couldn't be! Nobody you knew died! She hadn't, for one minute, thought that Claudine might die, when they were so worried about her. She knew all the time that Claudine would get well—she'd have to get well. And now Grandma.

The boys were interested and not quite sure how to take her.

"In her sleep," Bert said, "I suppose it's what she'd have wanted. We all have to die sometime, and she was pretty old. Gee, it doesn't seem possible, though... Grandma Pologne—dead!"

Linda turned from her, her blank, uncomprehending face suddenly drenched in tears. Her knees weakened and she half slipped, half slid to the floor. Hiding her face in her hands, she wept wildly.

Bert put his arms around her awkwardly. He tried to lift her up, but she resisted stubbornly, her sobs coming louder and louder. "Oh, Linda—please! Listen, Linda! Grandma had a good life, I mean, she had a pretty good life, and for an old person like that to just die in their sleep, why that's the kindest thing can happen, really. Listen!—Linda, she wouldn't want you to carry on like that!"

"You don't understand," she said thickly, through the tears that strangled her. "I don't care. I don't want her to die. I—I was going to do things for her—help her! Now I can't... And if she can die then ANYTHING—can happen—ANYTHING! ANYTHING!"

"Anything can happen," Linda said when Grandma Pologne died, but she didn't expect more trouble, really. It seemed enough to have Glenn away, to be poor, and to be worried about mama, and to know that Lawrie had walked out on them, for the sake of a round-faced girl with pretty hair.

If he had to marry someone, why couldn't it be someone worth while? A big stupid, like Della! Oh, she was all right, of course, but why couldn't he have had a little more sought after, not just tolerated at Ruth Wagner was. But there was no chance now, and it was a public dance or nothing, so she chose the public dance.

It wasn't so bad. Better than sitting home in the silent, gloomy house. A succession of boys, some of them she'd seen before, and some of them she hadn't, took her home after the dances. It was seldom the same boy twice—Linda alone, Linda in the crisp blue and white dimity, or a well-tailored wash-silk, had an air about her. A certain arrogance, in spite of her quick smile, and her easy patter. The boys were interested, and not quite sure how to take her.

But when the cut-down roadster, or the borrowed family car, stopped in front of the paint-thirsty frame house that stood, with only the low neglected privet hedge screening it from the highway, they began to understand. She was just one of themselves after all.

She submitted to the inevitable good-night kiss. Sometimes she tried to pretend it was Glenn who was taking her home from a dance, kissing her goodnight. But it was never a success. She knew it wasn't Glenn. If the kiss was too enthusiastically given she wiped it off without bothering to smile as she did it. They seldom came back.

Bert, who chanced upon one of these good-night sequences, put on a fine big brother scene, which didn't help either. Linda, who hadn't enjoyed the love making any more than he did, at once took the young man's part.

"Like all the rest," Bert said bitterly, "can't keep out of mischief. In love with a decent guy—or playing you are—and then necking with every tramp who drives you home from a cheap dance hall. You make me SICK!"

SEEK SIGNERS ON FARM PLAN

All County Agriculturists To Be Visited Before May 1

Every farmer in Columbiana county will be visited before May 1 by AAA farm reporters to be given an opportunity to sign the farm plan for participation in the national farm program for 1940. J. Glenn Bates, AAA county chairman, said today. May 1 is the deadline date for signing the farm plan.

"These reporters will explain the various options which farmers may take under the program and also the soil-building practices recommended this year," he declared. "The farmer will know in advance what his allotment will be for each commodity and will then be able to plan his farming operations more satisfactorily."

Signature Necessary

The chairman warned multiple land owners that a farm plan must be signed either by the owner or operator for each and every farm before that farm becomes eligible for payments under the 1940 program.

A feature of the farm plan inaugurated in 1939 whereby the maximum payments for the farm is given will again inform farmers of the total payments available for full participation.

Reporters have been given thorough instructions, "to take great pains in explaining the various features of the farm program," the chairman continued. Personal cooperation from the farmers with the reporters will assist materially in getting conservation payments to farmers at an early date, he explained.

Present interest in the 1940 program indicates that participation in the farm program in Columbiana county is expected to exceed the record established in 1939 when farmers operating 75 percent of the farm land took part in our national program to conserve the soil, Bates concluded.

Head of the Class—and fit to be Tried!

THERE are a lot of things about this stunning 1940 Buick to claim your attention—that is, if you really want to know what's what in motorcars.

For instance, you've got to admit that its style has done a lot to brighten up and beautify the boulevards.

And, from the way folks are swinging over to Buick, it must have something value-wise that's important for you to measure.

What you hear about its quick-off-the-mark engine and the silkiness it gets from balancing after assembly certainly calls for inquiry.

Prices Begin at $895 for Business Coupe—Sedan prices start at $955—*delivered at Flint, Mich. Transportation based on rail rates, state and local taxes (if any), optional equipment and accessories—extra. Prices subject to change without notice.

So do the rave notices Buick Springing gets and the talk you hear about five-foot front seat room in the SUPER and its Foamtex cushions soft as a down puff.

But skipping this—even skipping the fact that Buick's prices are lower than some sixes—there's one thing that alone is enough to send you hot-footing to your Buick dealer.

That's the obvious fact that as Buick goes these days so goes the industry.

It set this year's pace last year—and right now it is plainly the car others will be like "some day."

So do the obvious thing. Go try out this superb traveler.

Even if you don't discover that Buick is an immediate "must," you'll decide you'll never be really happy till you have one.

Music Clubs To Hold Joint Rally Tuesday

An interesting program has been arranged for the joint meeting of the Salem Music Study and Musical Arts clubs at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday in the assembly room of the library.

Mrs. J. W. Hornberger of Youngstown, organist, and musical director of the Westminster church in Youngstown, will be guest speaker.

The session tomorrow evening will replace the regular meeting of the Music Study group scheduled for this afternoon.

Mrs. Englert Observes 77th Birthday

Mrs. Margaret Englert celebrated her 77th birthday anniversary at a party Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Dennis Kleinmann, Monroe st.

Fourteen guests attended the party and dinner. The table was attractive with pink and white appointments, a cake decorated in the colors of the appointments and a bouquet of mixed flowers.

Mrs. Englert received many gifts from the guests, among whom were her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Englert, of Port Huron, Mich. She also received telegrams and messages from two sons, Cyril and Thomas, and a daughter, Mrs. C. C. McKenzie, in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Mrs. Francis Strader Club Hostess

Mrs. Francis Strader was hostess to members of the S. E. M. club at her home on Tenth st., Friday night.

Prizes in "cootie" were awarded to Miss Olga Zatkow and Mrs. John Lutzsch. Lunch was served with St. Patrick's day appointments.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Rhea Ward on East Third st., March 22.

Today's Pattern

MATRON'S PANELLED STYLE
Pattern 4408

There's a "just-out-of-the-band-box" freshness about Anne Adams' Pattern 4408. A dress you'll wear for gay afternoons and evenings all through spring and summer! Those wide front and back panels give the taller, slimmer lines your figure needs and are easy to stitch, too. Easy at the shoulders, too, in place the soft bodice fullness. Aren't the revers young and casual-looking? Make them in contrast—ay-lace-trimmed eyelet-embroidery—or in self-fabric. And you might use matching or contrasting tie-bands, or sew crisp ruffles down the bodice seams and at the sleeve cuffs. Let your Sewing Instructor speed your work.

Pattern 4408 is available in women's sizes 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36 and 40. It is 33 inches long, 39 inch fabric and 5/8 yard contrast.

"SPEED for bob-sledding thrills!"
S-L-O-W BURNING for smoking thrills!
says champion "Bucky" Wells

THEY'RE OFF—on the mile-long Mt. Van Hoevenberg run at Lake Placid, N. Y. with "Bucky" Wells driving. Fifteen breath-taking turns to go. Fifteen chances to taste the supreme thrills of speed. But in smoking it's different. "It's slow burning that makes a cigarette tick with me," "Bucky" says. And he means what he says, because he's smoked slow-burning Camels for ten years.

"ONE-TWO-BOB! ONE-TWO-BOB!" As the crew bobs, "Bucky" picks up speed... 60-70-80 miles an hour, driving high on the wall of ice as he swings the quarter-ton steel sled around the curve. But in cigarettes, this daring speedster gives the laurels to slow-burning Camels. You can tell by their mild, mellow taste that Camels burn cooler, slower—and scientists have confirmed this: Camels burned slowest of all in recent tests. (See panel below.)

Smokers:
SAVE THE COST
OF THE STATE
CIGARETTE TAX

Smokers who live in communities where certain state cigarette taxes are in effect can save the cost of the tax—and, in some instances, more—through smoking Camels. (See panel at right.) When you are a Camel smoker, you get this unique economy—and all the extra enjoyment of cooler, milder smoking—the fragrance and delicate taste of finer, more costly tobaccos.

In recent laboratory tests, CAMELS burned 25% slower than the average of the 15 other of the largest-selling brands tested—slower than any of them. That means, on the average, a smoking plus equal to

Camels—the cigarette of Costlier Tobaccos

If you want to know how it feels to go 80 miles an hour on a racing bob-sled, "Bucky" Wells of Keene Valley, N. Y., can tell you. But when it comes to cigarettes, "Bucky" Wells is on the slow side... the slow-burning side. That means Camels! "I know that Camels burn slower," "Bucky" says. "There's cool comfort in a slow-burning Camel. Mildness—more flavor. Every puff is a fresh treat to the taste, and—get this—there are many more puffs to enjoy in a Camel. Slow burning means extra smoking. I'd walk a mile for a..."

Even if a gust of wind did carry away "Bucky's" last word, not many people would fail to realize it was C-A-M-E-L. Camels are made from costlier tobaccos—drawn from the greatest treasure of mellowed tobaccos ever brought together in one place in the whole world.

FARM MACHINES WILL BE SHOWN

Interesting Program Arranged For All-Day Gathering

Arrangements are nearing completion for the annual farm implement show—an all-day affair—to be held Thursday, March 21, at the plant of the Salona Supply company on W. Pershing st.

The farm show, coming on the first day of spring, approximately enough, will attract hundreds of farmers, growers, stock raisers, and many urban dwellers as well.

The Salona Supply company, representative here for the International Harvester company line of machinery and implements will have on display a large assortment of International products.

The all-day program will be varied and highly interesting. Factory representatives will be present to tell about the varied types of farm machinery and to lead discussion groups.

By means of motion pictures, taken at the Feicht farm, near Greenford, farmers attending the sessions will be given the opportunity to actually see various types of International machines at work—in action on the job.

Other features include music by an orchestra and a free lunch at noon.

SAFE DRIVING IS MARTIN AIM

Last Few Thousand Miles Of Tires' Life Are Most Dangerous

You don't have to be told that the last few thousand miles of a tire's life are dangerous miles—that's just good common sense.

If there has been a blowout, or the casing has been run flat, the cords and fabric loosened, there isn't anything to do but replace the tire with a new one.

But if it's simply a case of worn-off tread, the sensible thing to do is to take the tire to the Martin Tire Sales at 736 E. Pershing st. and have them rebuild the tread at a small fraction of the cost of a new tire. You will find that it'll give you just as good service as a new one.

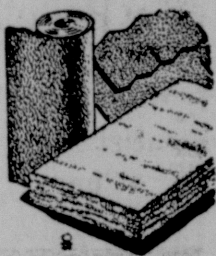

The Martin Tire Sales are anxious to help any motorist with any tire trouble that confronts them. They will sell you new tires if you prefer, rebuild your treads, or do anything else in the way of service, and you can pay the bill at the rate of 50 cents a week.

They emphasize the fact that one of their primary ideas is to have safe tires on the wheels of every car.

SPRING CLEANUP TIME'S NEARING

It's Economical, As Well As Stylish, To Refresh Clothes

Despite the fact that the weather hasn't been any too bright, the Easter season is not far away and already the far-seeing folk are making preparations to solve the spring apparel situation, an annual problem.

In this respect, the Paris Cleaners are an old standby.

The individual who prefers to have garments renewed may do so with the assurance that the 'Paris' will return them renewed, refreshed and ready for any "Easter parade," anywhere.

It is time, in any event, to have winter's dirt removed and it is economical, in addition, to do so. Dirt and grime gradually eat into the fabric of garments, regardless of how rugged it may be and eventually the garment is destroyed.

Regular cleaning not only keeps your clothing fresh and presentable but also lengthens its life and thereby saves you many times over the cost of the cleaning.

The Paris is equipped to handle all of your cleaning work.

State's 'Gone With The Wind' Lives Up To Advance Notices

Ann Sheridan and John Garfield in "Gone With The Wind," with Pat O'Brien, at the Grand Tuesday and Wednesday.

First showings here Saturday and Sunday of "Gone With The Wind," technicolor screen drama of the south before the Civil war were well attended.

The four-hour long feature based on the Margaret Mitchell novel has attracted the largest crowds in the motion picture industry's history wherever it has been shown.

Matinee and evening performances continue through the week, until next Saturday.

Acting Is Excellent

The famous heroine of the book, the wilful, selfish Scarlett O'Hara, is played by Vivian Leigh. English screen actress who makes her American film debut in the role. Clark Gable is Rhett Butler, Scarlett's lover and husband. Ashley Wilkes is played by Leslie Howard, and his wife, Melanie, by Olivia De Havilland. Magnificent direction, flawless photography and fine performances have added depth and quality to the Mitchell novel.

The story is genuinely human throughout and, as such, appealing generally. Technicolor brings out the real value of the scenes, particularly the interiors of the old southern homes as no other means could do it and the action is crowded into virtually every foot of the film leaves the theatergoer with little opportunity to think about the time.

At The Grand John Garfield and Ann Sheridan make their first appearance together as a romantic team in "Castle on the Hudson" which will be the Grand theater attraction Tuesday and Wednesday.

The Grand's film is the story of a young gangster, his sweetheart, a humane prison warden and an underworld lawyer. Garfield is seen as a cocky young gangster, whose only redeeming quality is his love for his night-club singer sweetheart, played by Ann Sheridan.

When he is convicted and sent to prison she refuses the attention of his lawyer, played by Jerome Cowan, preferring to wait for Garfield's release. At the prison the gangster has been in trouble because of his uncooperative attitude, winning however, the respect and interest of the warden, played by Pat O'Brien.

When the girl is hurt in a motor accident, the warden gives the boy permission to visit her on condition that he return to the prison. The boy finds the girl has been injured in an accident, "arranged" by the lawyer. The men quarrel and to keep the boy from being hurt the girl kills the lawyer, urging the boy to hide until she can join him. But the memory of the warden's faith in his promises to return leads the boy to reject her plea and return to finish his term.

MILEAGE ADDED AT SMALL COST

Butler Tells How To Get Most Out of Auto Investment

The automobile you have bought is one of the most economical means of transportation for you and your family that you can procure, according to Lee Butler of the Butler service center on W. State st. and Jennings ave.

It is economical, that is, if you take care of your investment.

About 30,000 miles or thereabout, the original tires, if you've had luck, are dangerously thin—you note that more gasoline and decidedly more lubricating oil are needed for a given number of miles, than when the car was new.

You have driven about 30,000 miles and in that time you have consumed about one-half of your investment.

Along about this time, Lee Butler says, the motorist is called upon to make an important decision in respect to his car. He may buy a new car if he wishes, or, for about $100 or thereabouts, possibly not that much, he can put his present car in tip-top condition again, good for another 30,000 miles. And the important thing, Butler points out, is that the second 30,000 miles cost only about eight per cent of the original investment, in comparison with the 50 per cent reduction the first 30,000.

Large transportation companies, Butler points out, follow this theory in operation of great fleets of buses, trucks, taxicabs, etc. They figure the cost of repairs and renovation, done by a competent garage, will be more than saved in increased mileage greater returns on the original investment.

Butler invites the motorist whose car is a year or two old to drop in at his well-equipped repair garage, W. State and Jennings, and get a "diagnosis". Butler's will gladly look your car over, tell you what it needs, at no obligation to you.

Firestone Company Develops New Plug

The Firestone Service store on W. State st. and the Fred Smith service station, E. State st., are distributors for the newly-developed spark plug which utilizes powerful radioactive rays.

After six years of intensive scientific research and development work, supplemented by thousands of practical tests in the laboratory and in hundreds of cars in actual operation, the Firestone Tire & Rubber Co. has perfected this new spark plug.

The basic principle of the new Firestone device is the utilization of the powerful rays of the rare substance polonium.

AUTO GOOD FOR TAX DEDUCTION

Don Smith Tells Motorist How to Save Money On Returns

With the approach of the deadline for filing 1939 federal income tax returns, motorist's naturally are interested in the deductions that they are entitled to take for their cars. Accordingly, Don Smith of Smith's garage, local Chrysler and Plymouth dealers at 794 E. Third st., has gathered the following information on this subject:

License plate fees, personal property and municipal taxes paid on automobiles may be deducted. So may interest on money borrowed to purchase an automobile whether used for business or pleasure and the insurance on automobiles used for business purposes.

Other deductible items are: Operating and service maintenance, depreciation on a car used entirely for business purposes, or a share of such expenses when the car is used jointly for business and pleasure.

Losses through damages to the car if no insurance compensation is received, or the difference between actual damage and insurance coverage. Cost of damage to either property or persons when the automobile was being used for business purposes and such losses are not covered by insurance.

When a car is used for business purposes and is sold for less than its depreciated value, the difference may be deducted.

FLOWERS REAL EASTER SYMBOL

Just Phone Endres-Gross For Satisfactory Service

Symbols of purity, freshness, sweetness, used as tangible expressions of the human emotions when only the highest type offering is desired, flowers over the ages have remained as dainty, fragrant, beautiful emblems of varied significances in the lives of all people.

Flowers belong to no one; yet they belong to everyone. They are not restricted to any one group. They may be found in all homes, at all times, providing happiness or inspiration.

At no season of the year are flowers more deeply appreciated than at Easter time.

There is, of course, a particular reason for this. Easter is the season of resurrection, significant of renewed hope and life everlasting. And how truly is this expressed in the gorgeous lilies and flowers of the period.

Few homes will be without floral tribute of some type, particularly when it is so easy to have flowers of your own choice, from the well-cared for Endres-Gross greenhouses.

Endres-Gross quality and service are known throughout the district, wherever flowers are bought. For occasions such as Easter, special attention is given every order, although at no time is anything left undone to assure the customer of every satisfaction, no matter what the occasion.

Just a telephone call is all that's necessary in case you will find it inconvenient to stop in at the Endres-Gross flower shop, 581 E. State st.

Prize List Arranged For Men's Events at Grate Alleys

Bowling activity in Salem hits its season's high in the next two weeks with men's and women's tournaments scheduled for the Grate Recreation and Masonic temple alleys.

The fifth annual City Handicap Tenpin tournament, sponsored by the Salem Bowling association, will open at the Grate Recreation alleys tomorrow night. At the same time, the annual Salem women's tournament will get under way at the Masonic drives.

Competition in the team event will launch both tournaments. Doubles and singles will follow as soon as team competition is completed.

Prizes Total $312.50

Prizes totaling $312.50 will be awarded to leading teams and individuals in the men's tournament. Twelve prizes, ranging from $25 to $3, will go to top-ranking teams in the five-man event, while in both the doubles and singles 20 prizes will be awarded. Top prize in the doubles is $12 and in the singles $10.

Six prizes will be awarded in the all-events race, three to the leading scorers with handicap and three to leading scorers without handicap. The non-handicap prizes in all-events will be given by E. L. Grate, owner of the alleys where the tournament will be held. First prize in both all-events classes is $6.

The prize list for the men's tournament was arranged at a recent meeting of the executive committee of the association at which nominations for officers of the association for the 1940-41 season were also made.

The present officers—A. E. Beardmore, president, and W. H. Juergens, secretary—were renominated. Other nominees are: President, C. E. Vaughn; Vice President, W. A. Loop; Treasurer, Thomas and Merle Caldwell; Secretary-Treasurer, Emmor Taylor and Paul Myers.

Officers will be elected by team captains the first week in April. A committee composed of Juergens, Caldwell and Vaughn was appointed by President Beardmore to arrange for the association's annual banquet to be held early in April.

Ask For Tournament

In addition to arranging the prize list and nominating officers, the executive committee also discussed a proposal that the annual tournament be held in Columbusiana every third or fifth year. Columbusiana claims a right to the tournament because its bowling teams are affiliated with the Salem association. The proposal will be put to a vote of team captains when the election of officers is held.

Eighteen teams will compete in the five-woman event of the Salem women's tournament, opening at the Masonic alleys tomorrow night. Eight teams will bowl on the opening night, eight on Wednesday night and two on Thursday night.

Doubles and singles events of the women's tournament will start Thursday night immediately after completion of the team event. The doubles and singles schedule will be announced later in the week. The schedule for the team event follows:

Red Sox Need Pitching To Become Serious Contender

BY GAYLE TALBOT

SARASOTA, Fla., March 11.—If the extraordinary success of the Boston Red Sox in producing great young players the last two seasons will hold good only one more time, then Tom Yawkey's fabulous outfit might give the Yankees a really close race this year.

Last season Manager Joe Cronin came up with a pair of beauties, Ted Williams in right field and George Taber on third, while Bobby Doerr was developing into a brilliant second baseman. Now he has a good, solid club that needs only one thing to make it a serious threat to the Yanks—pitching.

Poor Second

The Sox could finish only a poor second last year with Jimmie Foxx powering the ball for a .360 average and Cronin hitting .308. That can't go on much longer, for both Joe and Jimmie own to 33 years.

Neither can they count on Lefty Grove to go on forever. The famous Mose won 15 last season, only a jump away from his 40th birthday.

Cronin has hopes. He sat on the bench here and pointed out a half-dozen tall, young pitchers romping around the grass. All came up with fine minor league records. If one or two of them should make good, the Sox would have a great shot at the flag, Joe said.

3 TEAMS DROP FROM TOURNEY

Trinity, Christians and Baptists Lose In Round Robin

The Trinity Lutherans, Baptists and Christians were dropped from a round robin tournament in the Church basketball league last Saturday as they suffered their second defeat of the round robin.

The Trinity Lutherans, first champion of the league, were shaded by the Episcopalians, 23 to 22, in a hard fought game.

The Baptists fell before the Emmanuel Lutherans, 28 to 21, while the Christians were upset by the Nazarenes, 34 to 28.

Elimination of three teams Saturday brings to a total of five the number of teams which have been dropped from the round robin event in which two defeats disqualify a team. The A. M. E. Zion and Friends fell from the tournament the week before.

The Methodists continued to set the pace in the round robin race by defeating the Presbyterians, 23 to 16, for their third straight win. It was the Presbyterians' first setback of the tournament.

Summaries of Saturday's games follow:

PAIRINGS MADE FOR OHIO HIGH SCHOOL FINALS

State Tourney Will Get Under Way Thursday At Columbus

COLUMBUS, March 11.—Four undefeated teams were among the 32 preparing today for the Ohio High school basketball tournament here Thursday through Saturday.

This number of unvanquished quintets was a new recent year high for the state classic. Last year only one Class B team and none in Class A had a spotless pre-tournament record.

Roasting unsold records this year are Smithfield in Class B with 29 straight wins—the highest of any team—and New Philadelphia, Canton McKinley and Cincinnati Woodward in Class A.

Name Opponents

First round opponents were decided today at the office of H. R. Townsend, High school commissioner, for these 32 teams:

Class A—Akron South, Akron Buchtel, Canton McKinley, Massillon, Canton Lehman, New Philadelphia, Martins Ferry, Bellevue, Toledo Waite, Defiance, Findlay, Marietta, Cincinnati Woodward, Bellefontaine, Dayton Fairview and Columbus Central.

CLASS B—Rittman, Canfield, Waynesburg, Midvale, Smithfield, Bluffton, Holgate, Willshire, Sandusky St. Marys, Glenford, Kitz Hill, Hanover, New Carlisle, Germantown, Marysville and Amanda.

Pairings for first round games

CLASS A—Bellefontaine vs. Massillon 1 p. m.; Defiance vs. Akron Buchtel 2 p. m.; Martins Ferry vs. Canton McKinley 3 p. m.; Marietta vs. Findlay 4 p. m.; Cincinnati Woodward vs. Canton Lehman 6 p. m.; Toledo Waite vs. Dayton Fairview 7 p. m.; Columbus Central vs. Akron South 8 p. m.; Bellevue vs. New Philadelphia 9 p. m.

CLASS B—Willshire vs. Marysville 1 p. m.; New Carlisle vs. Waynesburg 2 p. m.; Smithfield vs. Germantown 3 p. m.; Bluffton vs. Midvale 4 p. m.; Glenford vs. Rittman 6 p. m.; Amanda vs. Sandusky St. Marys 7 p. m.; Canfield vs. Hanover 8 p. m.; Holgate vs. Kitz Hill 9 p. m.

Class A and B champions, respectively, in 1939 were eliminated in this year's district play. North Canton, undefeated in two seasons, lost to Canfield which entered the state classic with a record of 15 straight victories.

Win Central Title

Defiance lost only one game and that was to Amanda, Fairfield county, during a Christmas holiday tour. Amanda's strong team won the central district title by defeating Marysville 31 to 25.

Marysville gets a crack at the state title, though, because the district has two representatives.

Today's draw was planned so that no two teams from the same district would meet in the first round.

There will be eight games in each division Thursday, the Class A teams playing at the State Fairgrounds Coliseum and the Class B squads in the gymnasium at Ohio State University. All the games Friday and Saturday will be played at the Coliseum.

1939 WAS GOOD TROTTING YEAR

Was Fourth Greatest Record-Breaking Year In History

By FRITZ HOWELL

INDIANAPOLIS, March 11.—United States Trotting association directors declare 1939 as one of the harness sport's best years today as they met to put the "clinch" on an isolation plan aimed at the 52-year-old American Trotting association of Chicago.

With only two of 11 district dissenting, indications were that an amendment adopted in December by the executive committee would be approved, barring American-raced horses from all except free-for-all events at USTA meetings.

Frank L. Wiswall of Albany, N. Y., USTA executive vice president, claims the ATA is "parasitic" in that it contributes nothing toward the completion of statistics but uses USTA records to establish "credibility" of its horses.

Fourteen new world marks, five by pacers and nine by trotters, made 1939 the fourth greatest record-breaking year in the history of harness racing, a report to the directors disclosed.

Despite Peter Astora's Hambletonian victory and $48,000 winnings last year, Pascha Volo, 2:10 1/2, owned by W. N. Haines of York, Pa., was the leading race winner.

The two-year-old trotter, driven by 26-year-old Delvin Miller, of York, won 13 times in 13 starts.

BOISE, Ida.—A coral snake, deadly poisonous reptile found normally only in the tropics, was discovered in southwestern Idaho by George Holman of the U. S. biological survey. The snake was found in Swan Falls, between Owyhee and Canyon counties, on the Snake river.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala.—Alabama's Three Score and Ten club now has 90 members. Three of the members have passed the century mark. At a recent picnic, Col. Henry May, 102, amused the club youngsters of 70 and 80 by recounting his pioneer adventures in the Old West.

"Razzberry" Bowlers Fire At Pins Behind Curtain

Leave it to these "Razzberry" league bowlers to do things the hard way.

As if bowling when you can see the pins isn't tough enough, men and women kegglers competing in the "bowl-for-fun" league at the Grate Recreation alleys last Saturday night "blacked out" the maples in the second game of their three-game series.

A curtain was drawn across the alleys, preventing bowlers from seeing the pins when they tossed the 16-pound mineralites down the alley. Several kegglers hit good scores despite the handicap. L. Cady was high among the men in the "blindfold" game, with a 205 score, while Miss Jessie Nicolette led the women with 156.

In the third game of their series, the "Razzberry" league bowlers rolled at the head pin only.

Leading teams in the mixed-doubles competition were Mrs. Gertrude Vannie and Al Prethy, Miss Ruby Anglemeyer and John Arnold and Mrs. C. DuBrueq and Jack Whitton. Prizes for low scores in doubles went to Mrs. Lou Arnold and George Mitchell, Miss Evelyn Chamberlain and "Mack" McKinney and Mrs. Paul Frank and Phil Schmidt.

A "Kewpie" doll was won by Mrs. Lou Arnold for turning in a score nearest to a set figure. Consolation prizes were awarded bowlers who had splits.

A capacity crowd watched the league competition. Lunch was served the bowlers following the games.

BOWLING NEWS

The Grate Termites hammered out a 2,888 total to defeat a Trans-Williams team of Alliance by 182 pins in a special match at the Alliance Recreation alleys yesterday.

Forest Bishop led the Grate team to victory, firing a 396 series, including a 245 single game. Craxton of Alliance posted a 613 series.

Men's and women's teams, representing the Salem Eagles lodge, gained victories in special matches at the Masonic temple alleys Saturday night.

The Salem men's team defeated a Youngstown team, 2533 to 2481, while the Salem women won over the Youngstown ladies of Youngstown, 2059 to 1949.

BIG TEN, PEEVED AT CHICAGO, MAY SUB NEW TEAMS

Conference Schools Ask Maroons To Back Up "Cheating" Charge

CHICAGO, March 11.—A threat of ostracism from all Big Ten varsity sports activities hung today over the University of Chicago.

The cleavage between Chicago and the other conference schools came into the open Saturday night when athletic directors declined to give the Maroons basketball games on their schedules "until some questions are answered."

The conference has been waiting for those answers ever since Chicago abandoned intercollegiate football last Dec. 21. Shortly after the school took this action an "unknown, spokesman" for the institution said "You can't play Big Ten football without being crooked as far as the league rules are concerned."

Three weeks later President Robert M. Hutchins said in a speech to the students that there is no such thing as "legitimate subsidization" under conference rules.

Not a Contender

The Maroons have not been a football title contender in several years, usually winding up in the bottom spot.

In a statement issued through Commissioner John L. Griffith, the athletic directors said they took "no exception" to Chicago's decision to give up football, but added:

"However, a statement of an unknown spokesman for the trustees and the issuance of a pamphlet containing false statements derogatory to the conference, by the alumni council, seems

Attorney L. M. Kyes Will Run for Judge

Attorney L. M. Kyes of East Palestine today announced his candidacy for judge of the common pleas court of Columbiana county on the non-partisan judicial tal-lot at the November general election. His name will not appear on the May primary ballots.

He was born at Unity and has spent his entire life in Columbiana county. He received his early education in the country schools;
graduated from the East Palestine high school and later attended Mt.
Hope and Ohio Wesleyan college,
graduated from the law department of Ohio Northern university, was admitted to practice in 1902 and was for years associated with C. P.
Rothwell in the practice of law.

He married Myra E. Rogers of Rogers; is the father of one son, Roger M. Kyes, and is 60 years of age.
He was legal adviser and city solicitor of East Palestine for 20 years and served two consecutive terms as its mayor. He was secretary and later, president of its Chamber of Commerce.
He is a member of the Ohio State Bar association and is a past president of the Columbiana County Bar association.
